To Whom It May Concern:

On Monday, October 8, 2018, a mandatory evacuation order was issued for St. George Island, FL in preparation of the arrival of Hurricane Michael. The order went into effect at 12pm on Monday, October 8th.

Guests that were currently here were required to leave and guests due-in beginning Monday have had their trip delayed.

A copy of the Declaration of Coverage has been made available to guests as well as the official Mandatory Evacuation Order from the Franklin County Office of Emergency Management. We have also referred them to go to your website www.trippreserver.com to file a claim. Advised guests there is a Special Event Claim form on your website and ours to expedite claim handling.

If you have any questions, please email us at sgirentals@resortvacationproperties.com. We look forward to prompt review and processing of each claim.

Sincerely,

Resort Vacation Properties
